

THE SERVANT

Introduction A Dm A Dm

Verse 1

A Dm A Dm
May the Lord receive the glory, for the talent that He gave me-
A D E...E⁷
may I restore ten-fold all that He's entrusted me.
A Dm A Dm...
May I never be afraid, and bury it away-
A E A Dm A Dm
Lord save me from the fool's mistake, which robs You of Your own.

Verse 2

A Dm A Dm
You gave to each a pound of money, and You took a distant journey-
A D E...E⁷
to receive a kingdom and return in majesty.
A Dm A Dm...
You bid us use Your treasure wisely, and bring You all the glory-
A E A Dm A Dm
Lord help me not to squander, the trust you've placed in me.

Verse 3

A Dm A Dm
There are two kinds of people, who dwell inside Your kingdom-
A D E...E⁷
there are servants, and there are enemies.
A Dm A Dm...
The one is loyal to Your Name, the other won't have You reign-
A E A Dm A Dm
Lord grant that I may serve You, until You come again.

Verse 4

A Dm A Dm
Now the day approaches swiftly, when He'll try His servants duty-
A D E...E⁷
may it be, I'll have much to give to thee.
A Dm A Dm...
And for all my labors feeble, He'll reward most bountifully-
A E A Dm A Dm...
Lord grant that I may reign with You in Your kingdom in that fair day.
A E A (slow) Dm A
Lord grant that I may live with You in that city of endless day.
